

PEOPLE DO RULE IN THE NATION

GREAT VICTORY FOR TAFT AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Indiana Gives Taft Over 20,000 Majority But Elects a Democratic Governor.—Watson Made Great Fight Against Heavy Odds.

William Howard Taft is elected President by a splendid majority. Mr. Bryan knows now that the people do rule in this nation and that it is their will that he follow the lecture business. As a presidential candidate it is the third strike for Bryan but whether he calls himself out or not remains to be seen.

The total electoral vote for Taft is not less than 311 and the probability is that it will be more than that. The republicans will control congress by a big majority, therefore the important work begun will go right forward.

Indiana gives Taft a majority of over 20,000 but the state ticket does not fare so well. Reports today indicate that Tom Marshall, the democratic candidate for governor, has been elected by about 4,000 plurality and the figures on the rest of the state ticket are very close. James E. Watson, our splendid candidate for governor, made a gallant fight against great odds. He deserved to be elected and his defeat is deeply regretted by a great host of admiring friends throughout the state and nation. But he made a great fight against the combined forces of the brewers and the liquor interests. The principles he advocated so ably throughout his campaign will yet be approved by the people of Indiana. Though Mr. Watson has been defeated in this race he is not vanquished and will continue to be one of Indiana's most popular and useful citizens.

The indications today are that the republicans will control the Indiana legislature by a narrow margin and that Senator Hemenway will be returned to the United States senate. The democrats have probably gained three congressmen in Indiana. In the second Chaney is defeated, and Overstreet in the Seventh, Landis in the Ninth and Gilhams in the Twelfth suffer a like fate. The Eleventh probably goes republican this time.

JACKSON COUNTY.

In Jackson county the democrats win as was anticipated. The general majority is greater than four years ago but not up to the expectations of the democrats who claimed they would win by about 1250. Eight years ago Bryan carried Jackson county by 1042 and this time the unofficial returns give him 1152. The summary of the vote in the county so far as obtainable today is as follows:

For President:
Bryan .....	3783
Taft .....	2631
Chafin .....
Bryan's plurality .....	1152
For Governor:

TOWNSHIP RESULTS.

The republicans elect three township trustees, a clear gain of that many. They elect J. T. Pruden in Hamilton township by a majority of 45. John Ray, the republican candidate for assessor, was defeated by Mr. Borgstead for assessor by a majority of only 7. A. V. Goecker, republican, is elected trustee in Washington township by a majority of 64. Brethauer, democrat, is elected assessor in that township by a majority of only one.

Vernon township elects a republican trustee, Mahlon Stewart, by a majority of 41, and El Bedel, assessor, by a majority of 34.

Lemp, democrat, is elected trustee of Redding township by a majority of 91 and Oliver Sweeney, democrat, is elected assessor. Democrats of Grassyfork elect Albert Zickler trustee and L. G. Parker assessor, but the REPUBLICAN was unable to get the figures in time for use today. William Easten and H. C. Branaman, both democrats, were elected for trustee and assessor, respectively in Brownstown township.

Dr. T. E. Conner, democrat, was elected trustee, and W. T. McKain, democrat, assessor, in Saltcreek township. Mike Tierney, democrat, was elected trustee by a majority of 85 in Carr township, and Lincoln Holmes, republican, assessor, by a majority of 17. John Loudon was elected trustee and B. F. Mitchell assessor in Owen township. Both democrats. In Driftwood township John Hess was elected trustee and Henry Shoemaker assessor. Both are democrats.

In Jackson township Charles Steinwedel was elected trustee and G. F. Pomeroy was elected assessor. Both are democrats. Their vote by precincts is found below. Since every township in the county polls democratic the republicans did well to elect three trustees and two assessors.

You will find general election news, telegraphed from all parts of the county, on the second page of this paper today.

Pays Delinquent Tax.

The Southern Indiana railway company settled with the county treasurer of Lawrence county at Bedford Monday. The amount of taxes due and paid that day was $20,000. The receiver for the S. I. is paying up the accounts of the company one after another as fast as the necessary funds become available. The expenses of the road have been greatly curtailed of late and the road seems now to be more than paying the operating expenses.

FINE COAL

Bartholomew County Sees Visions Rich Mining Property.

John Ott, formerly superintendent of the Bartholomew county poor farm, has struck a coal mine on his farm near Lowell north of Columbus. He was not mining for coal when he found the mineral, but was having Lefe Burns drill for water instead. However, he has the coal and also the water and the latter is of the artesian brand.

Mr. Ott contracted with Mr. Burns to drill a deep well and the work started. A vein of coal was struck which proved to be twenty-five feet thick.

The samples brought to the surface showed that the coal was of a fine quality and was good as any soft coal mined in Indiana. Mr. Ott did not care to stop the work of drilling for water in order to dig a coal mine, so the drill was kept pounding. At a depth of 215 feet artesian water was struck and the flow is so strong that it stands within twenty-eight feet of the top of the well.

Moving Day.

Several wagons loaded with household furniture could be seen in different directions this morning and in nearly every case the furniture was owned by families who were moving into other houses and had waited until after election morning in order that the head of the household would not lose his vote.

MARRIED.

MARSHALL-STILWELL.

Tuesday evening William L. Marshall, whose home has been in this city for several years, and Mrs. Clara Stilwell, were married at her home in Brownstown. Rev. J. H. Washburn pronounced the ceremony. They will reside at Brownstown.

NIEMAN-HAGEMAN.

William Nieman and Sophia Hageman, both of Washington township, were married last Sunday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Pohlman, pastor of the German Lutheran church at Sauers.

SAGE-HARBAUGH.

Grover Sage and Vera Harbaugh, both of Seymour, were married Monday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage at Brownstown. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Washburn.

EDWARDS-NEWHOUSE.

Thomas A. Edwards and Laura Newhouse, both of Brownstown, were married Tuesday morning at the parsonage of the Christian church at that place. The ceremony was performed by Elder W. E. Payne.

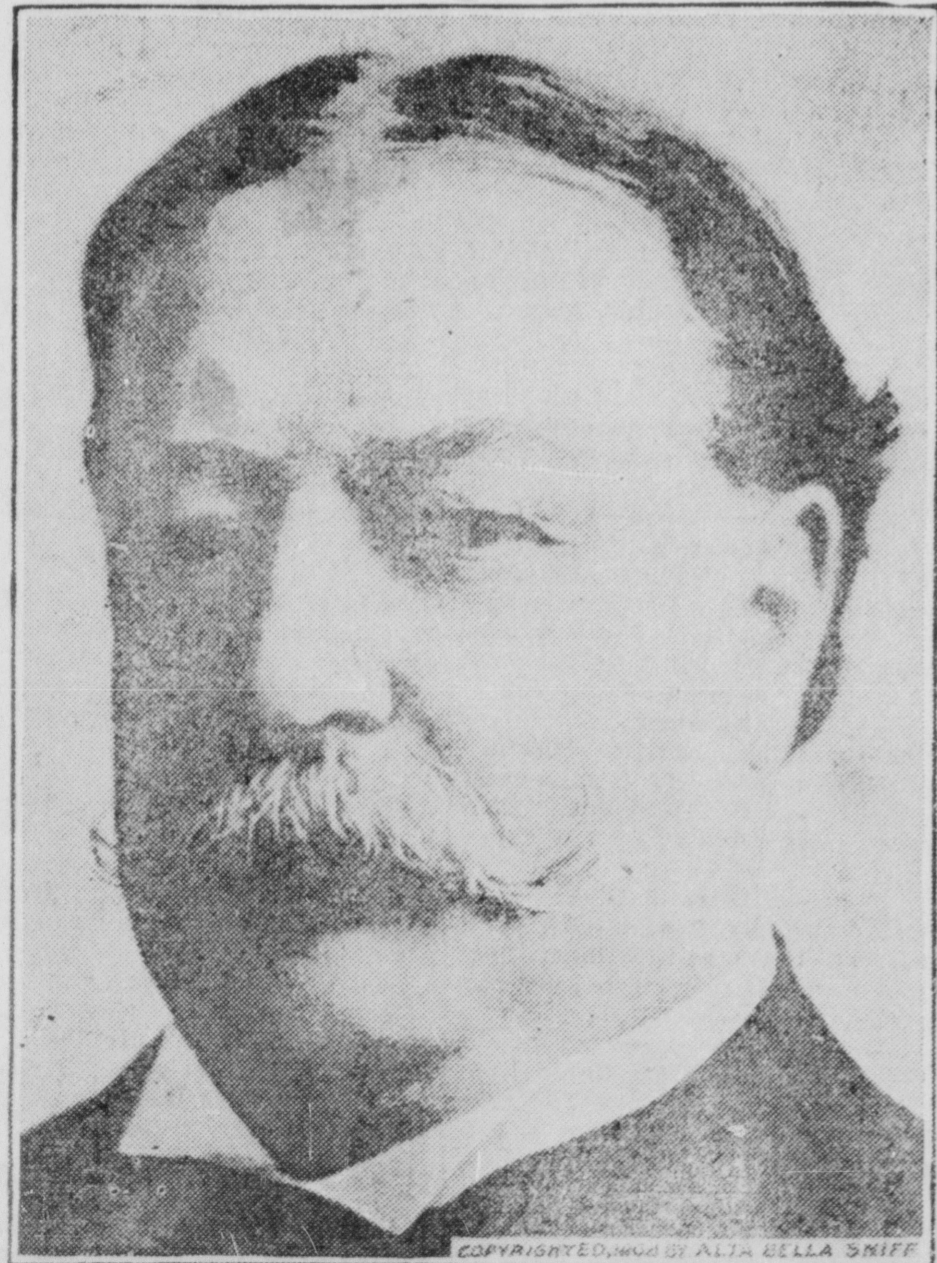

Thanksgiving Month.

This is Thanksgiving month, the month sacred to pumpkin pie and roast turkey with cranberry sauce fixings. Have we not all something to give thanks for? On the whole it has been a good year. Our barns and storehouses are well filled. We have cozy, comfortable homes, and the dear faces surround the evening lamp while the log crackles and sputters on the hearth. Some of us might be light in pocket, but there is no reason why we should not all be light in heart. If we have done some soul a kindness, and helped some stumbling burden-bearer over a hard place, we are certain to have that singing in our hearts which makes us think of the angel chorus.—Farm Journal.

Election Returns.

The telegraph companies and the telephone companies were very busy last night receiving returns and the people watched the bulletins with much interest. The REPUBLICAN is under obligation to all these companies for special favors.

The work on the Third street sewer is nearing completion and will be almost finished by late this afternoon.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT, President Elect.

JAMES S. SHERMAN, Vice President Elect.

TAFT AND SHERMAN ARE ELECTED.

Republicans Carry New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and New Jersey. Successful Candidates Will Have Large Majority In Electoral College.

New York, Nov. 4.—The next president of the United States will be William Howard Taft, Republican, of Ohio. The next vice president will be James Schoolcraft Sherman, Republican, of New York.

This is the verdict returned by the majority of the 15,000,000 voters of the United States. The Republican candidate has repeated Mr. Roosevelt's feat of carrying every northern state, giving him a clear majority in the electoral college of 113 over William Jennings Bryan, the Democratic candidate. Mr. Taft will receive 303 electoral votes to Mr. Bryan's 180. The latter also lost West Virginia, which went to Mr. Roosevelt four years ago, but has gained the one electoral vote which Maryland gave to the Republican candidate in 1900. Oklahoma, the state created since the last presidential election, has enrolled itself, as expected, in the Democratic column.

The states considered doubtful before the election have gone as follows: Maryland, Democratic; Indiana, Republican; Nebraska, Democratic; New York, Republican; Ohio, Republican; and West Virginia, Democratic. In most of these states the vote is close, especially in New York, where Charles Evans Hughes, Republican, has been re-elected governor by 54,000 votes. Taft has carried the state by 100,000.

Results in the East.

Pennsylvania has gone Republican by 250,000 majority and New Jersey by 75,000, the figures in 1904 being 505,519 and 80,598 respectively. Connecticut is Republican save in a few cities and towns, but Congressman George L. Lilley, the Republican candidate for governor, ran behind Mr. Taft.

The lower house of the Sixty-first congress will be Republican by about its old majority. The senate will remain Republican. Speaker Cannon has won his fight for re-election by his usual majority.

Most of the great cities of the country have gone Republican, with the exception of New York and Chicago. In each of these cases, however, the rural Republican majority has been sufficiently large to offset the Democratic urban vote. St. Louis has gone Republican, while the rest of Missouri is heavily Democratic.

Central States for Taft.

Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, the great central states, with an aggregate of sixty-five electoral votes, have gone Republican despite the fight made to bring them into the Democratic column. Governor Deneen in Illinois, Republican candidate for re-election, retained his seat, but Thomas R. Marshall, a Democrat, will succeed him in Indiana, and Harmon, Democrat will succeed Harris in Ohio.

The Republican hope of carrying Kentucky proved vain in spite of the victory of Wilson, Republican, in the gubernatorial contest last year. The greater part of the state's congressional delegation will be Democrats.

The Pacific coast states, California, Washington and Oregon, have given their votes to the Republican candidate, but Nevada, which voted against Parker in 1904, gave its votes this year to Bryan. Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota are again Republican, but Governor Johnson's personal popularity has sufficed to seat him again in the gubernatorial chair of the North Star state. Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and in fact the entire West and Northwest are Republican, but, as noted above, by lowered majorities.

The South Still Solid.

The "solid South" is still solidly Democratic. Mr. Bryan polling the usual large majorities. Only in Maryland has the Republican party made serious inroads on the Democratic vote, and in that state not sufficiently to change the result. Delaware, about which some doubt was expressed before the election, has gone Republican. The New England states have gone for Taft and have elected Republican governors, but the vote in Rhode Island, where the Democrats made a strong fight, is very close. In Massachusetts the Independence party candidate for governor made a good showing, though running far behind the vote of Thomas L. Hilsen last year.

New York city has been carried by Taft, the first time the Republicans have carried the greater city since 1896.

PENNSYLVANIA IS REPUBLICAN

Party's Vote Cut Down in Cities Where Labor Element Is Strong.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Pennsylvania has gone Republican by a majority of 250,000. In 1904 Roosevelt carried the state by 505,519, and two years ago Stuart, Republican, was elected governor by 48,435. This city, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Altoona and other cities have given Mr. Taft pluralities, but Scranton, Wilkesbarre and towns in which the so-called "labor" vote is strong have gone Democratic.

The election in Pennsylvania turned almost entirely on national issues. The highest state officer voted for being a judge of the superior court. For that office William D. Porter, Republican, has been elected by a majority of about 50,000 over Webster Grim, Democrat.

The vote in the country districts was, as usual, heavily Republican. The state's representation will again be Republican in the Sixty-first congress, the Democrats having gained only one seat. The figures will be as follows: Republicans, 24; Democrats, 8.

BRYAN CARRIES HOME STATE

Democrats Win in Nebraska by Small Majority.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Nebraska has gratified the hopes of William Jennings Bryan by going Democratic.

Governor George L. Sheldon, Republican, has been re-elected by a majority of 10,000. The personal popularity of Mr. Bryan in his home state and of Mr. Sheldon accounts for the difference between the governor's vote and that of Mr. Taft. The state's present congressional delegation, five Republicans and one Democrat, stands.

Bryan Silent on Election.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—"I do not desire to discuss the result of the election at the present time," said Mr. Bryan after the returns were received here. "At a later date I shall probably have something to say, but now I must beg to be excused." The Democratic candidate's own city gave Mr. Bryan a majority.

CONNECTICUT FOR TAFT

Carries State, but by Greatly Reduced Majority.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Despite the efforts made to place Connecticut in the Democratic column, the state has given its vote to the Republican candidate. Mr. Taft's majority, however, fell far below that of Mr. Roosevelt four years ago. Congressman Lilley has been elected governor by 5,000 despite the opposition to him on account of the submarine boat matter and the opposition to him in his own party. Five Republican congressmen have been elected, and the state legislature will be Republican.

The leaders of both parties in the state expressed great interest in the growth of the Socialist vote, which increased from 2,932 in 1906 to 5,250 this year.

Close Vote in Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Colorado, which gave Mr. Roosevelt a majority of 34,582 in 1904, has again gone Republican, but by less than 5,000. Jesse F. McDonald has been elected governor, and three Republican representatives have been chosen.

North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—The Democratic national ticket has carried North Carolina by a majority of 30,000, the Republican ticket making gains throughout the state. W. W. Kitchin has been elected governor.

The Electoral Vote.

The electoral vote is as follows:

	Bryan.	Taft.
Alabama	11	—
Arkansas	9	—
California	—	10
Colorado	—	5
Connecticut	—	7
Delaware	—	3
Florida	5	—

OHIO SPLITS HER VOTE

While Taft Carries Home State, Democrat Was Elected Governor.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—With probably the heaviest vote in the history of the state, Judge Taft's native state Tuesday gave him a slightly more than normal Republican plurality, but at the same time a Democrat was apparently elected to the position of chief executive of the state. The two winners are residents of this city, and in Hamilton county they received strong support. The indications are that the plurality for Taft in the state will be from 50,000 to 60,000 thousand, while that for Harmon will be only 5,000 or 6,000. Even these figures, however, may be changed by later returns, although the general fact of Harmon's victory seems settled.

ILLINOIS FOR TAFT

The Usual Republican Majority Returned in That State.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Illinois has been carried by the Republican party by a plurality of 150,000, giving the state's twenty-seven electoral votes to Taft and Sherman. The state Republican ticket has also been successful, Governor Charles S. Deneen winning from former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson, by a plurality of about 100,000, and Cook county gave a plurality to Taft of 50,000 against 126,000 for Roosevelt four years ago. Outside of Cook county the plurality for Taft is not far from 120,000. The plurality of President Roosevelt in 1904 was 304,939 for the state.

Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for governor, carried the city of Chicago by about 8,000 and the county of Cook by about 6,000. He lost heavily, however, in the state outside of Cook county.

The next state legislature will be Republican by a strong majority on joint ballot. This means the re-election to the United States senate of Albert J. Hopkins. Speaker Cannon has been re-elected in the Eighteenth district by a majority of about 7,000.

The voters of the state have endorsed the proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the state to issue bonds of $20,000,000 for the construction of a deep waterway beginning at or near Lockport, Ill., to a point at or near Utica, Ill., in the Illinois river.

Republicans Carry New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.—William H. Taft swept the state, being made the choice for the presidency of 80,000 more voters than approved of Mr. Bryan's candidacy. Seven of the ten congressmen chosen are Republicans and the Republicans will control both houses of the state legislature by even greater majorities than last year. In Essex county Everett Colby has been re-elected to the state senate. He appears to have carried his county ticket through with him.

Taft and Johnson in Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 4.—Governor John A. Johnson's efforts in behalf of the Democratic national ticket have not succeeded in giving the electoral vote of the state to Mr. Bryan, but have availed in re-electing him by a small majority. Of the state's 275,000 votes Mr. Taft polled 172,500, his majority being 90,000 below Mr. Roosevelt's majority of 161,464 in 1904. Governor Johnson's majority of 76,632 two years ago was reduced to 30,000 this year.

Gore Will Be Returned.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 4.—Bryan's lead is estimated at only 25,000. The five members of congress, four Democrats and one Republican, have been re-elected. The legislature is two-thirds Democratic, insuring the re-election of United States Senator Thos. P. Gore. The only state officers chosen were Corporation Commissioner A. P. Watson and Justice of the Supreme Court S. W. Hayes, both Democrats.

Kansas Still Republican.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Kansas is again in the Republican column this year. Mr. Taft's majority in the state is 25,000, 100,000 less than Mr. Roosevelt's majority in 1904. Walter R. Stubbs, Republican, has been elected governor.

Taft Wins in South Dakota.

Pierre, S. D., Nov. 4.—This state has been carried by Taft by a plurality estimated at 25,000. In 1904 Mr. Roosevelt received a plurality of 50,114 Robert S. Vessey, Republican candidate for governor, has been elected.

Delaware Goes Republican.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 4.—Delaware considered doubtful before the election, has gone Republican, giving three electoral votes to Taft. Simeon S. Pennell, Republican, will be the new governor.

Wyoming Republican.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 4.—This state's three electoral votes will be cast for William H. Taft, but his popular majority is considerably below that of Mr. Roosevelt.

Montana Goes for Taft.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 4.—The three electoral votes of this state will be cast for Taft. Edward Donlan, Republican, has been elected governor.

G. O. P. Wins in Idaho.

Boise, Ida., Nov. 4.—Idaho has gone Republican on both state and national issues. James H. Brady has been elected governor.

INDIANA SPLITS ITS BALLOTS

While Electing Taft It Chooses a Democratic Governor.

RESULT OF A BITTER CONTEST

The Election of Thomas R. Marshall

Democratic Candidate for Governor, Over James E. Watson, Was Offset for the Republicans by the Latter Carrying the State's Electoral Vote for Taft by a Very Narrow Majority—Indianapolis Elected Complete Democratic County Ticket.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—The returns from the state of Indiana, based upon incomplete reports, make a peculiar showing. For the first time since Thomas A. Hendricks was elected governor and U. S. Grant carried the state for the national ticket, Indiana has given a majority to the Republican candidate for president and a majority to the Democratic candidate for governor.

The reports indicate:

1. That Taft has carried Indiana by a substantial but not a large plurality.

2. That Thomas R. Marshall has been elected governor by a small plurality.

3. That nearly all, if not all, of the candidates on the Republican state ticket except James E. Watson have been elected.

4. That the Democrats have elected a majority of the congressional delegation from Indiana.

5. That the legislature is close and the United States senatorship hangs in the balance.

It is believed that the entire Democratic state ticket is elected and that the Democrats will control the legislature. The Republicans lost their legislative ticket here and at Terre Haute and other cities. Unless the country shows unexpected gains the Democrats will have the legislature on joint ballot, which will mean the retirement of James A. Hemenway from the senate. Judge Taft's plurality in this county will be less than 1,000, although Roosevelt carried it four years ago by 13,000.

While Chairman Goodrich and his associates have not authorized any statement giving Indiana to Thomas R. Marshall, the Democratic nominee for governor, they stated privately that he has carried the state. Chairman Goodrich thinks, however, that his plurality would not exceed 3,000. The Democratic leaders are insisting that Marshall has carried Indiana by a plurality exceeding 15,000 and that the result, so far as Taft and Bryan are concerned, is in doubt.

It looks now as though Republicans may have lost control of the legislature on joint ballot and which would mean the retirement of Senator James A. Hemenway of Boonville. This, however, is not conceded at the Republican state headquarters.

The Republicans have carried the First, Sixth, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth congressional districts; the Democrats the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, and Twelfth sure. The Eleventh is doubtful.

Cincinnati Crowd Cheers for Taft.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—The Republican ticket had a close call in Mr. Taft's home city, the party's majority of 40,193 in 1904 being reduced this year to 5,000. Two years ago it was 7,119. Mr. Taft received the returns at the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft. When his success at the polls was announced the house was surrounded by a cheering crowd calling for a speech from "the next president." Mr. Taft announced that he would make a formal statement in the near future.

G. O. P. Carries Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 4.—Mr. Taft's majority in this state is 75,000, being some less than the majority rolled up by Mr. Roosevelt four years ago. Governor James O. Davidson has been re-elected, and the state's congressional delegation, nine Republicans and two Democrats, will remain the same in the next congress. The legislature will be Republican, and Senator Stephenson will be re-elected.

Iowa Indorses Taft.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 4.—Although the Democratic vote which stayed away from the polls in 1904 turned out in full force yesterday for Mr. Bryan, it was not sufficiently strong to carry the state. Taft's majority in Iowa is 40,000 in a full vote of 504,000. B. F. Carroll, the Republican nominee for governor, was successful.

Bryan Carries Nevada.

Carson City, Nev., Nov. 4.—Nevada has been carried by the Democratic party, reversing the result in 1904. Of the state's 10,000 votes Mr. Bryan received 7,000.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Bryan's plurality in Kentucky is 14,000. Nine and possibly ten Democratic congressmen are elected—a Republican loss of two seats.

NEW ENGLAND REPUBLICAN

Taft Successful in Massachusetts and Other Eastern States.

Boston, Nov. 4.—This city, together with the rest of Massachusetts, has gone Republican, giving Mr. Taft sixteen electoral votes. The plurality of the Republican candidate is 84,361 over Mr. Bryan, but the votes of the two minor candidates, added to those of the Prohibition and Socialist Labor nominees, were large enough to deprive the Republican party of a majority of the votes in this state.

New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.—New Hampshire gave Mr. Taft almost as large a vote as it did Mr. Roosevelt four years ago. The balloting resulted in a majority of about 20,000 for the Republican candidate, which is a slight decrease since the last presidential election. Henry B. Quincy, Republican, has been elected governor.

Maine.

Portland, Me., Nov. 4.—Maine has returned its usual large majority for the Republican candidate, although Mr. Taft's vote did not reach the 36,791 majority polled by Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. The vote is as follows: Taft, 67,203; Bryan, 35,725. No state election was held, as Maine chose a Republican governor and Republican congressmen in September.

Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 4.—Rhode Island's four electoral votes will be cast for William H. Taft. Aram J. Pothier, Republican, of Woonsocket, has been elected governor.

Vermont.

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 4.—Vermont has gone Republican by 28,000 a falling off of 2,682 since 1904. There was no state election.

PACIFIC COAST FOR TAFT

Republicans Win in California, Oregon and Washington.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—There was no state election in California to complicate the issues, and the Republican national ticket carried the state by about 40,000 majority. In 1904 Roosevelt carried the state by 115,822 over Parker. The solid Republican delegation has been re-elected without change, and a Republican state legislature insures the election of a Republican to succeed Senator Perkins. The proposition to remove the state capital from Sacramento to Berkeley has been rejected.

Washington.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Washington's five electoral votes will be cast for Taft, the Republican candidate having carried this state by a popular majority of 30,000, reducing Mr. Roosevelt's majority in 1904 by 43,442. Samuel C. Cosgrove, Republican, has been elected governor, and the state legislature will remain Republican by a large majority.

West Virginia Carried by Taft.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.—West Virginia, classed as a doubtful state before the election, has voted for Taft, but as a result of the split in the Republican ranks, Louis Bennett, Democrat, for governor, and the entire Democratic state ticket has been elected.

Michigan for Taft.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 4.—Both sections of this divided state have gone Republican, the total plurality for Mr. Taft being about 100,000, a Republican loss of more than 100,000 since 1904. Governor Fred M. Warner, Republican, will retain his seat.

A Two-Vote Precinct.

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 4.—The first complete precinct returned in California was received from North Coronado Island precinct. There are two voters in this precinct, and their vote was for president, Taft, 2; for congress, Smith (Rep.), 2.

North Dakota Republican.

Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 4.—North Dakota has gone Republican, giving Mr. Taft a substantial plurality, though indicating a Republican falling off since the last presidential election.

Oregon.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 4.—Returns from all parts of the state indicate that Taft has a large majority. There was no state election.

Louisiana.

New Orleans, Nov. 4.—As usual, Louisiana is solidly Democratic by a very large majority. There was no gubernatorial election.

Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 4.—Mississippi's ten electoral votes will go, as usual, to the Democratic candidate. There was no state election.

Bryan Loses in Utah.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 4.—Mr. Bryan has lost Utah, and William Spry, Republican, has been elected governor by a small majority.

Montana Goes for Bryan.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 4.—The three electoral votes of this state will be cast for Bryan.

Carried His Own Precinct.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—Bryan carried his precinct 108 to 81 for Taft.

NEW YORK FOR TAFT AND HUGHES

Republican National and State Tickets Win.

TAFT CARRIES THE BIG CITY

Metropolis Gives Its Vote to Republican Presidential Candidate for the First Time Since McKinley Carried It in 1896.—Buffalo Has Gone Democratic, but Other Cities Are Republican—Next Legislature Will Be Republican—Governor Hughes Expresses Gratification at Result of Election.

New York, Nov. 4.—As the result of Tuesday's election New York state's thirty-nine electoral votes will be cast for William H. Taft and James S. Sherman. Both the Republican national and state tickets are victorious, Chas. E. Hughes being re-elected governor. Greater New York has gone Republican for the first time since 1896. Reports from all parts of the state indicate that the vote was heavy, the efforts of both gubernatorial candidates to bring out the ballots being rewarded with success. Both the old parties polled full votes, their strength not being seriously affected by the Independence, Socialist and other minor parties. Shearn, Independence party candidate for governor, ran ahead of Wanhope, the Socialist nominee.

Governor Hughes came down to the city from up-state with an indicated plurality of about 121,000. Chas. E. Hughes' plurality of 121,000 was approximately 68,000. The vote of two years ago was increased by about 150,000; Chas. E. Hughes surprised the Democratic leaders by an unexpectedly large vote in the rural districts, but lost tremendously in the city of Greater New York, where his followers had expected at least 100,000 plurality.

THE SOUTH STILL SOLID

Usual Democratic Majorities Returned in Dixie.

St. Louis, Nev. 4.—Missouri has reversed the Republican victory of 1904 and is again in the Democratic ranks by a majority of 30,000. St. Louis went Republican by a small majority. William S. Cowherd has been elected governor.

Maryland.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—Maryland's split electoral vote of four years ago, seven Democratic and one Republican, is this year solidly Democratic. The election is close, Mr. Bryan's plurality being about 5,000. The Democrats have gained one congressman. The state delegation in the Sixty-first congress will contain four Democratic representatives and two Republicans. This city has gone Democratic by a close vote.

Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Georgia's thirteen electoral votes will be cast for William J. Bryan, and the state's representation will continue solidly Democratic. The state election was held in September. The Taft vote in this state fell considerably below that of Mr. Roosevelt, which was 24,003.

Texas.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 4.—William H. Taft did not make as good a showing in this state as President Roosevelt, who polled 51,242 votes in 1904. The vote this year is approximately as follows: Bryan, 220,000; Taft, 20,000. Thomas M. Campbell, Democrat, has been re-elected governor.

Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—The Old Dominion is still safely within the Democratic ranks by a majority of about 17,000, but lost one Republican congressman. Taft polled only 30,000 votes in a total of 130,000, a Republican loss of 17,880 since 1904.

South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 4.—The Republican party polled only 2,000 of the 58,000 votes in this state, running slightly behind the figures of four years ago. M. F. Ansel has been re-elected governor without opposition.

Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4.—Albert W. Gilchrist, Democrat, has been elected governor of Florida, and the Democratic national ticket has carried the state by a majority of about 25,000.

Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 4.—Bryan has carried Arkansas by a reduced majority, as a result of a heavy negro vote throughout the state. All Democratic congressmen were elected.

Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 4.—Bryan 90,000; Taft, 13,000, are the election figures in this state. Mr. Taft polled 9,472 fewer votes than Mr. Roosevelt did in 1904.

Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Tennessee is still strongly Democratic by a majority of 80,000. The Republican vote of 1904 was greatly reduced.

40,000 MEN IN LINE

Monster Catholic Parade Closed Centenary Celebration.

Boston, Nov. 2.—What was probably the greatest parade of a religious character in the history of New England brought to a close Sunday the centenary celebration of the founding of the Roman Catholic diocese of Boston, which was begun on Wednesday last. It is estimated that fully 40,000 men representing the Holy Name societies of the Roman Catholic churches in the five counties which constitute the diocese, with over 150 priests, participated, marching to the music of 100 bands. Thousands of spectators filled every point of vantage along the line of march.

APPRECIATIVE CHINESE

Visit of Our Fleet Gratifies the Yellow People.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Cordial messages expressing gratification over the visit of the American fleet to Amoy, China, and the remission of Boxer indemnity by the United States have been received at the state department. Both messages, one signed by forty-one public officials, directors and officers of private enterprises representing twenty provinces, and the other by the former governor of Kiangsu and various prominent citizens of Hang Chow, expressed appreciation of the friendly relations existing between the United States and China. Assistant Secretary of State Adee replied in kind to the cordial messages.

Victim of Corn Shredder.

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 4.—The first victim of a corn shredder in Shelby county this season is Orville Branson, aged twenty-three years. While feeding a machine he caught his right hand in it. The arm was drawn in.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

No case of contagious blood poison is ever cured until the last particle of the virus has been removed from the circulation. The least taint left in the blood will sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous and destructive symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. No other medicine so surely cures contagious blood poison as S. S. S. It goes down into the blood and steadily and surely drives out every particle of the infection. It absolutely and perfectly purifies the blood, and leaves this vital fluid as fresh, rich and healthy as it was before the destructive virus of contagious blood poison entered the circulation. S. S. S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and other blemishes, the hair stops coming out, the mouth and throat heal and when S. S. S. has cleansed the system of the poison no trace of the disease is left. S. S. S. cures contagious blood poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. Book on this disease with suggestions for home treatment, and any medical advice sent free to all who write.

ROOSEVELT FIXING FOR AFRICAN TRIP

Expects to Leave Soon After Retirement.

New York, Nov. 4.—From an excellent authority it is learned that President Roosevelt plans to leave New York on March 13th, nine days after the inauguration, by the North German Lloyd liner Koenig Albert for Naples, via Gibraltar, where the liner is due on March 25.

Besides his son, Kermit, who will take photographs of the big game in Africa, he will be accompanied by a professor from the Smithsonian Institute, and an official from the Navy department. From Naples, Mr. Roosevelt and his party will travel on one of the German East African steamers to Mombassa, via the Suez canal and Aden, a sea journey of seventeen days, including stops.

So far no arrangements have been made for the six months the party will spend in Uganda province, between the coast and Port Florence, a distance of 584 miles. On Lake Victoria Nyanza the party will embark for Entebbe, in Central Africa. One thing is certain, Mr. Roosevelt will not enter the Congo territory. He has received an invitation from Mr. McMillan, nephew of the late Senator James McMillan of Detroit, who owns 50,000 acres of forest, mountain and jungle in the Nobile in the district of Uganda, to shoot over his estates.

OVERTAXED.

Hundreds of Seymour Readers Know What it Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed: Have to much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains. Backache, sideache, backache, headache, early symptoms of kidney ills, Urinary troubles, diabetes, brights disease follow.

Mrs. Thomas Geray, 132 McKee street, Greensburg, Ind. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been a blessing to me. I suffered with backaches head-aches and such severe pains across the loins that I could not rest at night or get any comfort at any time, day or night. I had no strength or ambition and was unable to attend to my household duties. I had kidney and bladder trouble, and the profuse flow of the secretions day and night gave me great annoyance. I doctored for these ailments but got no relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me relief at once. The aches and pains soon vanished. I can now sleep well and I have more kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me quick and permanent relief.

CONCLUDING ARGUMENTS

Summing Up Being Made Today in Celebrated Bank Case.

New York, Nov. 3.—Concluding arguments are being made today in the cases of Charles W. Morse and Alfred R. Curtis, former officials of the National Bank of North America, on trial in the United States court here, charged with violation of the national banking laws. The attorneys for Morse and Curtis began the final moves in the case by securing the dismissals of the counts in the indictment against their clients referring to the Calvin Austin loan of $100,000 in connection with which misappropriation had been charged. With this matter decided the summing up for the defense proceeded. Charles E. Littlefield addressed the jury in behalf of Morse and former Judge W. M. K. O'cott argued in extenuation of the irregularities laid at the door of Curtis.

PAYNE TO LEAD IN TARIFF WORK

Chairman of Ways and Means Committee Re-elected.

IN CONGRESS FOR 24 YEARS

For More Than a Score of Years Sereno E. Payne of New York Has Sat in the National Congress and Has Been the Head of the Ways and Means Committee Since the Death of Nelson Dingley, and in This Position Will Be Called on to Engineer the Promised New Tariff Bill.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The re-election of Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee in the house of representatives, means that Mr. Payne will organize the tariff work of the next congress and will inroduce the new tariff bill. Throughout the congressional recess he has been gathering information to lay before the ways and means committee when congress reassembles. Mr. Payne has been in congress almost continuously for the last twenty-four years. He succeeded to the important chairmanship of the ways and means committee on the death of Mr. Dingley of Maine, author of the present Dingley tariff law.

NEW YORK'S BIG NIGHT

Election Revelers Take Possession of "Great White Way."

New York, Nov. 4.—The closing of the polls last evening was the signal for a rush to Park Row, where the newspapers had strung up large white canvases on which were thrown election results, and by 8 o'clock scores of thousands had congregated in City Hall park and nearby streets. There were other crowds in front of the bulletin boards on Broadway, in Harlem and in Brooklyn. Two hours after the polls had closed several newspapers issued extras announcing the election of Taft and from the crowds of thousands arose a now familiar refrain, "Taft, Taft, Big Bill Taft." From opposing thousands came the chorus "Wait and see, Taft has not won yet."

Broadway was the scene of much revelry, a continuous parade of merry-makers going up one side of the "great white way" and down the other. Although the climax of the saturnalia was not reached until the theaters let out the crowds, the celebration began long before the closing of the polls. The matter of the election of the candidates, of one or the other of the parties played absolutely no part in the start of the general demonstration.

With all the noise and confusion, the demeanor of the crowd was in every way proper and in harmony with the spirit of the day and hour.

Loudenslager's Congratulations.

New York, Nov. 4.—Congressman Loudenslager, secretary of the Republican congressional committee, in addition to sending congratulatory telegrams to Judge Taft and James S. Sherman, sent a message to President Roosevelt in which he congratulated the executive on the election of the Republican nominees for president and vice president and on an increased Republican majority in the lower house. Speaking of the congressional returns the congressman declared that he was satisfied that the Republican majority in the house of representatives would be in excess of the forecast made by him last week in which he predicted 237 Republican congressmen to 164 Democrats.

Surprised His Friends.

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 4.—Manley B. Cutter, for ten years general manager of the Lehigh Valley railroad, has resigned to accept a similar position with the Minneapolis, St. Louis & Iowa Central railroad. The resignation came as a big surprise to Mr. Cutter's friends here.

Dalzell's Plurality Reduced.

Pittsburg, Nov. 4.—Congressman John Dalzell of the Thirtieth district was elected by a greatly reduced plurality. Edward F. Duffy (Dem.) made a hard fight against him, cutting into his usual vote in industrial precincts.

SOUGHT RELIEF BY MISDEMEANOR

Porto Rican In Hard Luck Wanted Prison Fare.

HE CHALLENGED UNCLE SAM

J. Melendez, Who Gave Way to a Feeling That Things Were Going Against Him and Desiring to Secure Comfortable Quarters for the Winter, Deliberately Placed Canceled Postage Stamps on Dummy Letter That He Might Come Into Criminal Conflict With the Federal Government.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—J. Melendez of this city, formerly of Porto Rico, deliberately put canceled stamps on letters he mailed in this city that he might be arrested by the federal authorities and cared for, according to a story he told, through an interpreter.

On the envelopes that were mailed there was written a "return card" about as large as the address, bearing the name of Melendez and his address in this city. The stamps were plainly canceled. One of the stamps had been placed in the center of the envelope as though to attract greater attention, and one of the envelopes bearing a canceled stamp, in the cypress corner, was affixed a foreign canceled stamp. Melendez was notified to appear before Postoffice Inspector W. T. Fletcher, and lost no time in appearing.

As he could speak practically no English, Lieutenant A. W. Pressey, in charge of the naval recruiting office, was called upon to interpret the Spanish of Melendez into English. It was brought out that Melendez formerly had been connected with the postoffice at Humacao, Porto Rico, but had come to this country about ten months ago with about $200. He lived a short time in Valparaiso, Ind., he said, and then went to the harvest fields of North Dakota. From there he went to Chicago, he said, with $45 and tried to find work, but was unsuccessful, and came to this city recently practically "broke." He said he had been unable to find any work, and not knowing what to do, had deliberately placed the canceled stamps on the letters and mailed them in order to be arrested. He said that the letters were not addressed to anyone he knew, and contained only blank paper. He was about twenty-one, apparently, and said he had been at one time a printer.

He was not arrested. His story impressed the officials to whom he told it. Lieutenant Pressey saw to it that he obtained something to eat and a small collection was taken up for him by several inspectors who heard his story. He was sent to the Salvation Army headquarters with a letter. Should he not be received there he will be sent to some other charitable institution until some course is decided upon.

LAWING COMES HIGH

Price of a $3 Pair of Shoes Already Exceeds $175.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 4.—James Gaherty, an employee of the Illinois Central railroad at Clinton, purchased a pair of shoes for $3 from a Bloomington firm. Alleging a defect, Gaherty refused payment and was sued. He lost his case, costs amounting to $6.85 being assessed against him. He appealed to the county court and lost there, his costs being $11.90. Still confident, he appealed to the circuit court and declares that if defeated there he will carry the case to the supreme court. His expenses through loss of time in attending the various trials, his attorney's fees, those of his opponent, court costs and other expenses in the case have aggregated $175.75. Neither side shows any disposition to quit.

Make Haul at Anderson.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 4.—Robbers carried off silverware and jewelry valued at $300 from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Castien, two gold watches and other jewelry from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fadely and about $50 worth of silverware from the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth McKeown. The police have no clue and it is believed that the robbers were professionals.

Preacher Bleeds to Death.

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 4.—While William Chesser, forty-eight years old, and his brother were cleaning a shotgun preparatory to an election celebration the gun was accidentally discharged. The calf of William Chesser's left leg was torn off and he bled to death. The victim was a preacher.

Loses Life Under Wheels.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 4.—Albert Draper, a farmer, of rural route No. 2, Cutler, Cass county, was ground to pieces beneath the wheels of a Lake Erie & Western train here. He was a well-to-do farmer and married.

Aged Woman Burned to Death.

Owensville, Ind., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Ellen Bilderback, eighty-four years old, is dead from burns received during a fire that destroyed the home of her son, James Bilderback, living northwest of Owensville.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 36 Highland Ave., Houlton Main says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised medicines, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, before that was half gone the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed: a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at W. F. Peters drug store. 50c. and $1.00 a bottle Trial bottle free.

Supreme Court to Act on It.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The supreme court of the United States has fixed Dec. 7 as the date for hearing argument in the case of the former negro soldier Oscar Reid, who was dismissed from the service without honor on account of his alleged participation in the Brownsville affair. The suit was instituted by Reid in the United States circuit court for southern New York for pay during the time of his enlistment. The verdict of that court was against him, and he appealed to the supreme court.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St. Chicago tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger. Electric bitters quickly remedy stomach liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at W. F. Peters drug store, 50c.

Saloon Man Accidentally Shot.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 3.—Dietrich F. W. Nahrwald was shot and killed in his saloon by Dennis Kelly, one of close friends. The weapon was a new repeating rifle which Nahrwald had recently purchased and of which he was very proud. His son and a friend had been out practicing with it and returned to the saloon to find it full of people. There was much curiosity to see the gun, it is said, and a scramble to handle it resulted in it exploding a cartridge. Nahrwald was instantly killed.

A Sure-Enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin of Reidsville, N. C. says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns ect. 25c. at W. F. Peters drug store.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label. If poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

THE eagle is a proud bird, but the rooster has mighty little to crow over.

Now that the election is over the campaign workers will give attention to their private affairs.

THE people do rule and because of that fact William Jennings Bryan will continue on the lecture platform.

TART is elected and business will move right on. The lecture business will be good and Bryan can be booked for the season.

EZRA WHITCOMB has a right to feel good over the race he made for county commissioner. He was defeated by only 181 votes.

THE board of canvassers were so busy adding up the returns today that the newspapers were able to get only a part of the returns.

INDIANA republicans are feeling good over the result in the nation but the defeat of Watson is deeply regretted by every loyal republican.

THE democrats may do some crowing over Jackson county but the republicans here never did get much consolation from the returns of this county.

THE reelection of Governor Hughes in New York is a distinct triumph for the right. He is a great man and stands for good and clean government. Keep an eye on Hughes. He is a national character.

THE republicans of Bartholomew county are not feeling very good today if the reports from there are correct. The democrats seem to have elected their entire county ticket and besides carried the county for Bryan.

THE republicans elect the trustee in Washington township the trustee in Hamilton township. She democrats have had every trustee in the township and all the assors but two. This is a pretty good gain in the township.

Thanks Friends.

I wish to thank my friends of all political parties for their support in the election yesterday.

THE Ahlbrand Carriage Company are shipping a carload of vehicles to Cincinnati today for the tri-state buggy exhibit, which will be held there all next week. Albert Ahlbrand, Wm. Wente and J. F. Tunley will be in charge of the exhibit. Mr. Tunley went to Cincinnati this morning and Messrs. Ahlbrand and Wente will join him early next week.

Reports say that W. J. Brayn was in the booth less than half a minute Tuesday and evidently voted for himself. This is the first chance he has had to do so for eight years.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain amount of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, teachers and writers on Materia Medica who recommend it as the best remedy for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and preserve in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

Much Money Lost.

There was considerable money up on the results of Tuesday's election the greater portion of which was won by the backers of the republican candidates. If the results had been different much more money would have changed hands as in a vast majority of the bets great odds were given. In Indiana where bets were usually even money on Watson and Marshall the results proved to be very close as expected.

Entertained.

Miss Lucy May Day entertained at her home last night for her friend, Miss Grace Fatout, of Franklin. The invited guests gathered about 10:30, election returns were received over the telephone. Lunch was served in the dining room, which was decorated in flags and the pictures of the candidates for President.

Quite a large number of people from Crothersville and other towns south of here were in this city Tuesday evening to receive the election returns and returned home on a late car. The facilities for securing news from outside of the county was excellent in Seymour this year and brought people in from the country from every direction while many remained at home and received their reports by telephone. The reports from over the county were late in coming in, some of the precincts not being counted out before three o'clock this morning, while other precincts had either little or no telephone connection with this city.

Most of the out of town people who came in to vote returned to their duties on Tuesday and the passenger traffic was light today on all the roads. However, everything is expected to be moving along as usual in another day or two and business will continue to improve. The manufacturers of every kind will soon be increasing their output and a greater demand for labor will be expected.

There were more people at home in the United States on Tuesday than ever before at any one time. The nearest to it, so far as the voters were concerned, was in 1896 when about 14,000,000 votes were cast in the presidential election.

Joshua Colburn, of this city, who has been ill for several months, is very low today and his brother, David Colburn, was called here from Medora this morning to be at his bedside.

Interfered With Challenger.

RIOTING AT HONG KONG.

Local Merchants Resented Attempts to Enforce Boycott.

Hong Kong, Nov. 4.—Rioting which resulted here from the attempt of those involved to force the local merchants to continue the boycott against Japanese goods, has been suppressed by the soldiers, who were called out to patrol the business districts. One Chinese who offered armed resistance, was shot.

The riots were organized primarily by the students of this city, and the disturbance is evidently widespread. At Singapore similar riots have occurred and a number of merchants said to have shown a desire to discontinue the boycott and otherwise favor Japan, have been branded as traitors and in several instances marked by having their ears slit. It is alleged that a league has been formed secretly and has pledged itself to give any man who slits the ears of a so-called "traitor", $15, and should he be thrown into jail, to see that he is held up to the public as a martyr and to pay him a dollar a day while in prison. Should one of the traitor merchants be killed, it is alleged the league agrees to pay his slayer $200.

At Canton there have been hints of the same trouble and a number of ruffians have been hired to attack merchants. Vigorous measures to suppress the rioting have been taken.

HAD BAD LUCK

First Tournament of Aeronautic Society Not a Success.

New York, Nov. 4.—Two accidents of a serious nature marred the first annual tournament of the Aeronautic Society, held at Morris Park in the presence of a crowd of several thousand spectators. Lawrence J. Leah of Montreal, the record holder for towed flights in a glider, dropped a distance of forty feet, sustaining a fracture of his right leg, and Fred Young, an eight-year-old boy, was struck by a motor cycle and badly lacerated. The only successful flight was that of Prof. John Mack of Bridgeport, Conn., who ascended 3,000 feet in an old-fashioned hot-air balloon. The more modern airships were either unable to rise or else met with accidents when they did leave the ground. The motor cycle portion of the program, however, furnished many exciting finishes.

FAILED TO PAY IT OVER

Prominent Great Northern Official Charged With Big Shortage.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.—General Solicitor W. R. Begg of the Great Northern railroad confirmed the shortage of $50,000 in the accounts of A. J. Gordon of Spokane, Wash., formerly general counsel for the Great Northern at Spokane. Speaking of the matter, Mr. Begg said:

"It is true that Mr. Gordon is short in his accounts $50,000. As I understand it he was sent two drafts to pay into court the amount of taxes in litigation in Ferry county. One of the drafts I understand was for $30,000, and the other for $20,000. He took the money and we are sorry."

"Has he promised to pay up?"
"Yes, but we doubt if he can do it. We have not decided whether or not we will prosecute."

COURT HOUSE IN DANGER

Pine Bluff Gradually Slipping Into Arkansas River.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Nov. 4.—Two large brick cotton warehouses, owned by R. H. Knox and D. S. Bluthenthal, tumbled into the Arkansas river, following the continuous caving in of the banks. Hotel Jefferson and the Jefferson county court house are in danger of falling within the next forty-eight hours. The river continues to eat its way into the heart of the business district. Hundreds of trees tied at the waters edge without effect.

A large plantation on the north side of the river is gradually disappearing.

Kills Leader of Outlaws.

Manila, Nov. 4.—A force of constabulary from the town of Iligan sent in pursuit of a band of Moros which has been raiding plantations and causing other depredations in the province of Misamis, on Mindanao island, overtook the outlaws, killed the leader, and is following the remainder of the band, according to a dispatch received here. This band has caused much trouble in the province, and with its capture it is believed that quiet will be restored in that part of Mindanao island.

Captain Denies the Charge.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Captain Harvey Daly, of the schooner Freddie Alton, which was detained at Pensacola, Fla., on suspicion of being engaged in smuggling Chinese from Mexico into the United States is at his home here. He denies that the schooner was engaged in any illegal calling. He was called home because of the illness of his wife and expects to return soon to Pensacola.

Application For Receiver

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 4.—Upon suit filed in the United States circuit court here for the appointment of receivers in Virginia for the Southern Life and Accident Insurance company, Judge Waddill cited the defendant company to appear here Nov. 16 and show cause why a receiver should not be named. This is a similar suit to that brought by the plaintiffs in Chicago Saturday.

The Chronic Specialist

Has been in Seymour since July 1st and is here to stay. Within this short time he has built up quite a large practice that is growing every day. The reason for this is that he has given each and every patient such satisfaction and so greatly benefited them that they give him a good reputation to others. His treatment for Piles; Fistula; Catarrh; Gout; Female Complaints; Indigestion; Blood, Skin and Nervous Diseases is so far superior to treatment commonly obtained from other physicians that there is no comparison. The greatest reason for the successful way in which Dr. Sherwood handles chronic disease is that he knows all about the few diseases of which he makes a specialty and does not pretend to treat acute disease such as fever, etc. Stick to your family physician for acute troubles, but go to Dr. Sherwood for chronic ones. ## LIFE'S MEASURE.

"He liveth long who liveth well."
So ran the legend true and bold.
To keep this truth in mind were well,
For truth is better kept than gold.

The one will perish in an hour.
One never dies, but bright and pure
As heaven itself, when earthly power
Has passed, forever shall endure.

Not by the years of life is told
The length of life, but by the zeal
And kindly works, as growing old,
Men for each other do and feel.

His life is long whose work is well.
And, be his station low or high,
He who the most good works can tell
Lives longest, though he soonest die.

Then, as the swift winged moments speed,
Freight them with wealth and truth and love,
With garnered sheaves of thought and deed
For the grand harvest home above.

Sow love and taste its fruitage sweet,
Sow smiles and see the desert spring,
Sow wisdom for its harvest meet,
Sow sunlight for the joy 'twill bring.
—Waverley Magazine.

His Daughter's Choice

"I want $50!" The speaker paused dramatically. "Don't remind me that my allowance is overdrawn already; I know it. If you won't give it me, call it a loan and charge interest—any rate you like. But the money I must have somehow, or be ruined!"

"I'm afraid you're that already, Clive!" John Granger, rising from his chair, regarded the younger man with scorn. "Another gambling affair, I suppose—a debt of honor?" he said, in icy tones. "Well, you'll have no more money from me—not a penny. I warned you last time that you need never ask again; and my word is my bond!"

"And—and you'll see me disgraced, never able to look a decent man in the face again, for the sake of a paltry $50!"

"No! For your own sake, Clive! When I promised your dying father to look after his son, I vowed that I would carry that promise out loyally for the sake of the friendship that had lived for years. I've done it! You've been brought up in my own house, with my own child; every possible help that I could give you, you've had. Now it's got to end! You've lived in luxury too long; perhaps if you see a little of the sterner side of life it will bring you to your senses!"

"Oh, don't preach!" retorted Clive Thornhill, bitterly. "That sort of thing only make a fellow worse; and I've heard it all so often. Are you such a saint yourself?" he asked, fiercely. "Have you nothing to reproach yourself with—no skeleton in your own cupboard? I wonder what Winnie would think, for instance, if I were to tell her—"

"What?" John Granger faced round sharply; his eyes seemed to challenge the other in that swift glance. "What?" he asked again.

"Well, that the mother whom she believes to be dead still lives!" said Thornhill, in a sullen, dogged voice. He had not meant to play that last card yet; but it had been forced from him somehow. There was a pause, during which the ticking of the clock on the shelf was the only sound that broke the stillness.

"Oh, you know that, do you?" said his guardian, slowly. "How you know it I'm not going to ask; I don't want to know. But if you think that it makes one jot or tittle of difference, you're mistaken. I'm the last man in the world to be bullied or blackmailed; you should know that also, Clive! And now good night and—good-bye! I think we'd better part company after this, don't you?"

He did not offer his hand, neither did he attempt to take it. Dumbfounded, he stood there an instant; then, without a word, he turned on his heel and left the room.

John Granger sank back into his chair. "How did he come to know?" he whispered, hoarsely. "Who told him?" But the question found no answer. The door had hardly closed when the French windows at the other end of the room were pulled back violently. A girl, with white, tragic face, emerged and came toward him.

"Dad," she moaned, "I was in the conservatory and I heard—yes, every word! What Clive said isn't true; oh, tell me it isn't true!"

She fell on her knees by his side, and her hand sought his beseechingly. John Granger was a hard man. His enemies said it often, and his few friends did not deny the assertion. But all knew there was one soft spot in his heart. His daughter, Winnie, was the flower of his life—his idol; he would have cut off his right hand to save her pain, and now he was powerless to help her.

"Little girl," he whispered in that broken voice, "I meant you never to know; I had told myself that it was better you never should know. But now it is idle to deny it. It is true."

"Daddy!"

"Listen," he went on. "Your mother and I were never well mated. She was some years younger than I, a butterfly of the gay world; the humdrum existence of a grimy little manufacturing town chafed her after the whirl and swirl of London. She was always pining for change, gaiety, pleasure; she could not understand my desire to remain here. When you came on the scene things were worse. She looked upon a child as a hindrance and a drag, instead of a blessing. Oh, how I hated her for that! And then—and then!"—the words choked in his throat—"we decided to live apart, she to go her way and I to go mine!"

"And you never told me! You have let me grow to womanhood believing her dead! Daddy," she went on after a short pause, "you were more cruel than you knew. My mother must be either a very brave woman or a very callous and heartless one, and that I can't believe. You misunderstood her—never realized her true nature—that must be the explanation of it all. Tell me where she lives."

He wrote some words on a sheet of paper and passed it to her without speaking.

"No. 12 Lavender Mansions, Clapham. I must go to London to-morrow and see her!"

"No!"

She glanced at him questioningly. "No! But you don't mean that. You are not serious."

"I mean it." His voice was harsh, stern, forbidding. She could see the corners of his mouth twitch strangely. "I say again that you must not go, Winnie. You must choose between your mother and me; you cannot have both. That chapter of my life is closed, and I refuse, once for all, to reopen it. You understand?"

"I understand." Whole seconds hung between those two words. Her breath came and went in little gasps; she clenched her teeth to keep a sob from breaking forth. Suddenly she bent and kissed his forehead. "Good night, daddy," she said, in a queer shaky voice. "I—I wonder if you know how hard you can be!"

John Granger came down to breakfast in an ill-humor next morning. He had spent a bad night. Old-time spectres had haunted his slumber, and an uncomfortable feeling that the future would bring him fresh worries refused to be shaken off. Winnie was not visible—an unusual occurrence. Picking up his letters, he noticed at once that there was an unstamped one on the top.

"LET ME GO IN UNANNOUNCED."

Her writing! What could it mean? He tore it open and read feverishly.

"Darling Father: I do not, cannot think that you really meant all that you said when we talked last night. In any case, I must see my mother—you will have realized that; and I am going to London by the first train this morning. Will you send me a wire to Saint Pancras station? If I don't get one I shall know—but I can't consider any such possibility. Dear old daddy, I don't think I have ever disobeyed you knowingly before. Try to forgive your daughter, who still loves you with all her heart. Your own Winnie."

Gone! He fell groaning into a chair, only to start up next moment and ring the bell furiously.

"What time did Miss Winifred leave?" he shouted to the domestic who appeared.

"To catch the 7:20 to London, sir!" was the answer. "Perkins drove her to the station."

A second question elicited the information that she had taken a hastily packed traveling bag with her. He began to realize that some of his own determination ran in her veins.

"I want to see your mistress. No, there's no name. Let me go in unannounced." The maid who answered the bell at No. 12 Lavender mansions, that next morning, knew not what to make of the stern, masterful, gray-haired man who addressed her in such summary fashion. She saw with relief that another person was at hand to whom she could transfer her responsibility.

John Granger had seen, too; he stepped forward with a sudden glad exclamation.

"Winnie!"

The girl coming down the stairs looked up. There was a quick rush of color to her cheeks.

"Daddy—you!" she cried. "But—but this is an insult. After what has gone you have no right here. Before you go a step I demand to know—"

"Hush!" His hand was raised. "I have every right. Wait!"

Something in his face made her draw back and raise no further protest. Silently she pointed to the door of a room.

John Granger understood. Gripping hard at his self-control, he opened the door and peeped inside; then, turning, closed it quickly, quietly, behind him. The woman with the sad, beautiful face who was sitting by the window, gasped faintly, and half rose from her seat. He spoke her name softly, tenderly.

"Mary! Yes, it is I—at last. Twenty years ago you told me that I should live to regret, and I vowed passionately that it was impossible. You were right and I was wrong. I've come to beg forgiveness for—for that and many other things. I've been a hard man all my life—too hard. But I've learned my lesson and had my punishment—bitter, heavy punishment it's been. Mary—wife—our girl Winnie's waiting and wondering out there. She knows that I'm here. Can you—can you, for her sake, if not for mine, forgive the past? Can we start life afresh—together?"

And the answer? Winnie knew five minutes later, when they came to her with shining faces and their arms locked, and such a wealth of happiness in her mother's eyes as had never been there before.—Wilfred Stretton in London Tit-Bits.

A FRONTIER MARKSMAN.

Wild Bill Hickok's Skill in Use of the Six Shooter.

Wild Bill Hickok was the first frontiersman who recognized the importance of proficiency in the use of the six shooter. This was the real secret of his supremacy. He was an unerring marksman and shot as accurately under fire as when firing at a mark, apparently taking no aim.

Probably no man has ever equaled him in the lightning-like rapidity with which he could draw a weapon in time of emergency and in the thorough self-possession that made it possible for him to take advantage of every opportunity in savage conflict. He had a standing order to his deputies that they should not rush in on him in any of his affairs and especially should not come quickly up in the rear.

By forgetting this a man named Williams met his death at Abilene, Hickok taking him for an enemy and firing so rapidly that it left no opportunity for recognition. He readily killed a wild goose across the Smoky Hill with his revolver. Riding at his horse's highest speed, he fired shot after shot into a tin can or a post a few rods distant.

Standing at one telegraph pole, he would swing rapidly on his heel and fire a pistol ball into the next telegraph pole. These were some of the simpler feats he performed day after day on the street to settle little wagers. He could shoot a hole through a silver dime at fifty paces and could drive the cork through the neck of a bottle at thirty paces and knock out the bottom without breaking the neck. He could do what the fancy shots of the present day do, and possibly some of them equal him as marksman with a revolver, but it must be remembered that he was the first to acquire the skill, and the so-called crack shots of his day were poor imitations at best, although most of them boasted of their fame.

He shot just as well with others shooting at him and at a man as steadily as at any other target. There were certain traits of his character, however, that were almost womanly. He was fond of children, and they liked him. He declined to quarrel with the peaceful settlers of the community, the business men, on any provocation. There was no foolhardy bravado about him.—Denver Field and Farm.

Discovery of Mammoth Cave.

Everyone has heard of the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky, but few probably are aware that its discovery was due to the search for suitable earth for the manufacture of saltpetre. The anxiety to find saltpetre earth was due to the Embargo bill passed by congress in 1807, which forbade American vessels to sell for Europe and foreign vessels to land cargoes in America.

The Americans needed gunpowder and to make it they required saltpetre. They had been getting it from Spain and Italy, but the Embargo bill stopped that, and there was no American supply of the substance. A roving chemist, named Samuel Brown had shown how saltpetre or potassium nitrate could be obtained from cave earth. And so the quest for caves was begun and assiduously continued.

When the Mammoth Cave was found, every part of the great cavern was searched for cave earth. From pit, byways and avenues slaves carried out the heavy loads of petre earth. Many thousands of tons were treated and the rude chemistry of the day produced something like 100,000 pounds of saltpetre within two years.

Wanted to See Too.

Farmer Ased and his wife came up to London to go to one of the theaters. They saw a great many men go out after the first act, in which a man had been shot.

She—Merry, where are you going?

He—Look here, Sairey. I've stood this as long as I can. I'm going out like the rest of 'em to see how that fellow is getting on who was shot. The poor wretch may be dead by this time, and if he is this ain't no place for us.—London Mail.

Truthful Cholly.

"Cholly, have you ever loved before?"

"My dear girl, I will be honest with you. I have been engaged so many times that my ex-fiances have perfected an organization and adopted a yell."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

From One Walk to Another.

"What would you do if you was one o' dese millionaires?" said Meandering Mike.

"I s'pose," answered Plodding Pete, "dat I'd get meself a golf outfit an' walk fur pleasure instead o' from necessity."—Washington Star.

Some people marry for love and some for money, but in after years most people wonder what they married for.

A man can make a woman happy by telling her that that's the way she makes him.

Couldn't Fool Father.

Stern Parent (as daughter comes upstairs at midnight)—What made that young man stay so late?

Pretty Daughter—Why, we—er—got to discussing politics, and didn't notice the flight of time.

Stern Parent—That story doesn't go, young lady. People who discuss politics make a lot more noise than you two did.

Wanted It Fresh.

Mrs. Newed—Excuse me, but do you sell ice here?

Dealer—Yes, ma'am.

Mrs. Newed—Well, I want 10 cents' worth. By the way, how long have you had it in stock?

Dealer—Since last winter.

Mrs. Newed—Oh, that won't do. I want some that is fresh.

After the Refusal.

Nell—You can't say I ever gave you encouragement.

Jack—Yes you did, you led me to believe your father was wealthy.

A Slight Jolt.

"According to this magazine article," said the conceited author, "it is a great trial to be the wife of a genius. What do you think about it, my dear?"

"Well, perhaps it is," rejoined his wife. "A genius is no doubt cranky in some ways—but of course I don't know anything about it."

Great Idea.

"I think," said the young physician, "that I'll confine myself strictly to office practice."

"That's a good idea," rejoined his friend the druggist. "People who are able to walk to an office are generally strong enough to get well in spite of a doctor's advice."

Information Wanted.

Mrs. Neurich (entering studio)—You are the artist who paints miniature portraits, I believe?

DeAuber—Yes, madam.

Mrs. Neurich—Well, what'll you charge for painting a life-size miniature of my daughter?

A Little Flighty.

"He showed you his flying machine?"

"Yes, and I criticised it."

"What did he say?"

"Oh, he went right up in the air."—Cleveland Leader.

Didn't Want to Risk It.

Daughter—Shall we invite Dr. Bigfee to our "at home?"

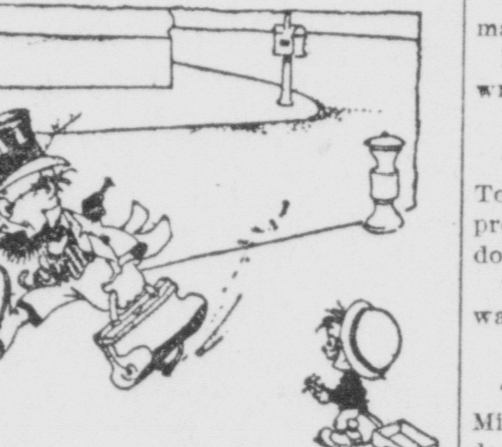

Mother—I think we had better not. He's so absent-minded he might charge it on the bill.

Wasn't So.

"I understand that your husband had a hard struggle when a young man?"

"That's just one of his jokes; he didn't struggle; he fell in love with me at first sight."—Houston Post.

Immune.

Kid—Carry your grip, mister? Farmer Barnus—No consarn ye! Ye look innocent enuff, but I can't be too blame careful of bunko steerers, b-gosh!

Intimate Friends.

First Hello Girl—Do you know Mr. Ringer?

Second Hello Girl—Not by sight; only to speak to.

Great Thought.

The Bridegroom—Hello, what's this? All the bills for your trousseau! Why, I thought your father paid these.

Bride—It is customary, dear. But he thought you would rather pay them and not give him the humiliation of borrowing the money from you.

Seeing Is Believing.

He—Did you know I had become an actor?

She—No. All I heard was that you had gone on the stage.

Just Like Iron.

Wife—John, there must be a lot of iron in your system.

Husband—Why do you think so? Wife—Because you invariably lose your temper when you get hot.

Superstition.
"I guess I'll have to admit that I'm superstitious."
"Oh, I wouldn't be that way."
"You wouldn't?"
"No. Whenever you begin to get superstitious it's a sure sign you are going to have bad luck."—Philadelphia Press.

Vast Difference.
"Money," said the cynic, "is the real trouble in life."

"It never impressed me as being anything like trouble," sighed the man who was broke.

"And why not, sir?"

"Well, it is very easy to borrow trouble, but did you ever try to borrow money?"

Thought It a Proposal.
The pretty girl was soliciting for a charity publication.

"I have come," she exclaimed suddenly, "to take your name." And the young man remembered it was leap year and jumped two feet.

"To take my name, miss?" he stammered. Oh, er—that is, this is so sudden."

The Only Way.

"Is there any method that will enable a man to understand a woman?" queried the innocent youth.

"The only way to understand a woman," replied the home-grown philosopher, "is not to try. Under these circumstances she will reveal herself sooner or later."

A Different View.

Criticus—I visited DeAuber's studio yesterday.

Artless—He's what they call an impressionist, isn't he?

Criticus—So I was led to believe; but after viewing his work I have come to the conclusion that he is a depressionist.

In Doubt.

"Is your son-in-law, the duke, a good conversationalist?"

"Well," answered Mr. Cumrox, "he's willing enough. But my foreign vocabulary is limited. I can never feel sure whether he is talking about his pedigree or thinking up a menu for dinner."—Washington Star.

Souvenirs.

Gunner—Where have you been, old man?

Guy—Just back from Pittsburg.

Gunner—Indeed! Did you take in the town?

Guy—Oh, no, just part of it. Swallowed several quarts of smoke, a peck of soot and a bushel of cinders.

Stupid Waiter.

Ethel—Try the waiter with some of your French, dear.

Bert—The very thing. Gass-on! Gass-on!

Waiter—No, sir; only the electric light.

Taking Chances.

Charles—I heard the other day that Gerald is going to get married.

Edward—Well, why shouldn't he? He's comfortably well off.

Charles—That's just the whole point. Why doesn't he remain so?

Hard on Patient.

Young Surgeon (in hospital after having just removed the patient's leg)—Does the operation meet your approval, doctor?

Head Surgeon—Very well done, only for a slight mistake.

Young Surgeon—Why, what's the matter?

Head Surgeon—You've amputated the wrong leg.

Getting at the Facts.

"Say, paw," queried small Tommy Toddlies, who was perusing a book of proverbs, "is it true that barking dogs do not bite?"

"I never knew one to bite while he was barking," answered Toddlies, Sr.

It Was Heavenly.

"Oh, isn't it heavenly!" exclaimed Miss DeGush, referring to Miss Pounden's piano performance."

"Heavenly is the name for it," rejoined young Knox. "It sounds like thunder."

Fly in the Ointment.

Mrs. Homer—Mrs. Neurich seems to have refined tastes.

Mrs. Caller—Yes; but she has such an unrefined way of bragging about them.

Niche.

"Well, how does it feel to have a niche in the temple of fame?"

"Quite natural," replied the now celebrated poet. "I've always lived in a hall bedroom."—Washington Herald.

A Good Thing.

"Are you in favor of the young Turkey agitation?"

"You bet I am! I have no use for old, tough birds."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Big Bath tub.

The tides run swiftly out in the Bay of Fundy.

A summer urchin, witnessing the phenomenon for the first time, yelled shrilly: "Ma, look quick! Some one has pulled the plug out of the ocean!"—Washington Herald.

HER MESSAGE.

The bill clerk entered the office just as the cashier came out of the telephone booth.

"Oh, here you are," said the cashier. "Why didn't you come in a few minutes earlier, Johnny? I've just been having an enjoyable conversation with a friend of yours. She's a very nice sort of young woman, I should imagine."

The bill clerk colored angrily. "Did you say that I'd be back in a minute or two?" he asked.

"Der'r me, no!" replied the cashier. "How very careless of me! I quite meant to tell her that, but I got so interested that I forgot. I guess she must have forgotten, too, because she didn't ask me. A very musical voice she has, Johnny."

"It's none of your business whether she's got a musical voice or not," said the bill clerk. "Did she leave any number?"

"Let me see, now," said the cashier, reflectively. "Number? Now, what was that number she gave? Let me think."

The bill clerk glared at him. "See here," he said at last, "this may strike you as funny, but I don't like it. You quit your foolishness and give me that number."

"Don't be impatient with me, my dear boy," said the cashier, plaintively. "You must see that I am doing my best to recollect. I ought to have written it down, I know, but, as I was saying, we were having a very interesting conversation. A mighty nice young woman, Johnny."

"Are you going to give me that number or not?" demanded the bill clerk, with forced calmness.

"Did she give me a number, after all?" said the cashier, musingly. "It seems to me that I should recollect it if she did. N-no, I don't believe she did. Come to think it over, I'm quite sure she didn't. A wonderful gift of repartee she has. Is

PERUNA A TONIC OF GREAT USEFULNESS.

HON. R. S. THARIN.

Hon. R. S. Tharin, Attorney at Law and counsel for Anti-Trust League, writes from Pennsylvania Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Having used Peruna for catarrhal disorders, I am able to testify to its great remedial excellence and do not hesitate to give it my emphatic endorsement and earnest recommendation to all persons affected by that disorder. It is also a tonic of great usefulness."

Mr. T. Barnecott, West Aylmer, Ontario, Can., writes: "Last winter I was ill with pneumonia after having the grippe. I took Peruna for two months, when I became quite well. I also induced a young lady, who was all run down and confined to the house, to take Peruna, and after taking Peruna for three months she is able to follow her trade of tailoring. I can recommend Peruna for all such who are ill and require a tonic."

Pe-ru-na Tablets.

Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Thin Glass the Stronger.

Glass is a substance that we cannot figure the strength of as much as we can a great many other things with which we are familiar. It varies in itself. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says the strongest glass, as a rule, breaks into the greatest number of fragments. Comparing the strength of thin glass with thick, the former is relatively the stronger. This is a thing often lost sight of. Then again as to the difference between rough plate and polished plate, we find polished plate the stronger.

This is probably to be attributed to the fact that all these fine surface hair cracks are polished out. These only go into the glass to a certain depth, and when they are all or nearly all polished and ground off there is less chance for some of them to form the basis of a crack and thereby the glass is increased in strength. Tests have been made and some formulae have been arrived at. As was to be expected, they show irregular results as to strength of glass.

BABY'S ITCHING HUMOR.

Nothing Would Help Him—Mother Almost in Despair—Owes Quick Cure to Cuticura.

"Several months ago, my little boy began to break out with itching sores. I doctored him, but as soon as I got them healed up in one place they would break out in another. I was almost in despair. I could not get anything that would help him. Then I began to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and after using them three times the sores commenced to heal. He is now well, and not a scar is left on his body. They have never returned nor left him with bad blood, as one would think. Cuticura Remedies are the best I have ever tried, and I shall highly recommend them to any one who is suffering likewise. Mrs. William Geeding, 102 Washington St., Attica, Ind., July 22, 1907."

"May I ask how you earned your first dollar?" queried the reporter. "I earned it, young man," said the financial magnate, "many years ago by doing just what you are doing now, as my first assignment on a newspaper. I went out to interview a man, and it may interest you to know that I got a good deal more information out of him than you're going to get out of me."—Chicago Tribune.

SOME MYSTICAL STATISTICS.

How Wedding Presents Are Once in a While Passed Around.

A bulletin issued recently by the Federal government says that the people of the United States spent $8,765,892 for wedding presents during the month of June. The cost of trousseaus reached $22,795,021, and more than $12,000,000 was spent upon bridal bouquets, wedding breakfasts and hack hire. To the 845,675 clergymen who officiated at the 643,890 weddings of the month the bridegrooms paid $497,365.80, or an average of $1.43 1/4 a head. Upon wedding journeys, music, rice, liquors, souvenir postcards, tips and the hire of portable porte cocheres a further sum of $1,567,320 was expended, making approximately $50,000,000 in all.

The fact that the cost of wedding presents worked out to no more than $12.06 a wedding may surprise the reader, but several interesting footnotes explain it in a satisfactory manner. It is pointed out, for instance, that only 22 per cent of the wedding presents displayed by the average bride were actually bought for the occasion by their real or ostensible donors. Fully 60 per cent of all presents, says the report, are made to do service a great many times. At the start, let us say, an opulent young bachelor is asked to be best man at a wedding, and, with hysterical generosity, rushes out and buys the bride a $70 clock. Well, six months later, when this bride's third cousin is married, the same clock serves as a wedding present again, and later on, when the third cousin herself is bidden to some other girl's nuptials, it changes hands a third time. Thus the same clock may continue on its rounds for years, until its gilding wears off and its spring breaks. Often, indeed, it is received by the same bride twice—that is to say, at her first marriage and at her second. But such accidents are apt to sunder friendships and cause ill feeling.

The report proceeds to point out that, while most brides display enormous and costly collections of clocks, water pitchers, hand-painted pictures, soup ladles, oyster forks and other objects of vertu to their friends, it is often true that many of these things are not actual presents. There has arisen, indeed, a tendency to artificially inflate such exhibitions by borrowing articles from relatives and intimates, and even by hiring them from dealers. Thus the bride who displays 60 clocks may have received, in point of fact, but 30. The rest may go back, the day after the wedding, to the dealer. Often his representative may be observed standing in a corner of the exhibition chamber, disguised as a waiter or a detective.—Baltimore Sun.

COUSIN LINNIE'S HOME.

She Was Diligent in Trying to Make Herself Useful.

Cousin Linnie was 50 years old when the new school board came into power. She had been teaching since she was 19—teaching in the gentle, literal, unimaginative fashion of the generation to which she belonged. For years she had seen the change coming, and tried in a helpless, terrified way to acquire new methods, but it was no use; she never was made for a school teacher, at best. So at 50 she found herself alone in the world, with four hundred and thirty dollars between herself and starvation. Then her cousin Frank and his wife, Caroline, offered her a home with them.

She was pathetically grateful, and at once began to make herself useful in a hundred ways. She did the mending, which in a family of four children was no small task, and gradually more and more of the housework. She helped Horace, who was backward, with his lessons, and cared for little Virginia on Katie's afternoon out; she did much of the sewing and all the packing when the family went away summers. She did it all with such feverish gratitude that gradually Frank and Caroline began to feel that the gratitude was their due.

Things had gone on so for three years, when Caroline's younger sister, Madge, came for a visit. Madge was an independent and outspoken young person, liable to startling, but generally tonic, outbreaks. The fourth day of her visit she cornered her sister when Cousin Linnie was down in the kitchen, making a salad.

"Cousin Linnie must be invaluable to you," she observed.

"She is a great help," Caroline answered. "I think she appreciates the home we are giving her."

"I should think she would!" Madge retorted, dryly.

Caroline turned sharply. "What do you mean, Madge?" she asked. "You might as well say it out."

Then Madge said it. She did not waste many words. Briefly but accurately she enumerated Cousin Linnie's tasks, her long weeks with no pleasure or outing, the state of her gowns and her purse.

"She even," she declared, her young face hot with the shame of it, "borrowed a postage-stamp of me, and I know she hadn't two cents to pay for it, for she passed the office twice that day, and could have bought one easily. You say you give her a home—you and Frank. Perhaps you did once. Did it ever occur to you that for all she is doing here she could easily earn enough to give herself things—gowns, vacations, all the little things a woman needs? I could find her half a dozen places. You give Cousin Linnie a home! It is she who is giving you, month in and month out, what no money could ever buy!"

There was the gust of an opening door, and Madge vanished upon the wind of her own anger. Caroline stood still, a startled look in her eyes.—Youth's Companion.

LETTER FROM "OLD HICKORY."

Ohio Man Has Epistle Written in 1828—A Double Autograph.

While searching in the old trunk which had been the property of his grandfather, Captain Sterling M. Barner, Dr. Sterling B. Taylor found a letter written by Andrew Jackson in 1828, the year before he was inaugurated President. Dr. Taylor regards the letter as of peculiar value, because it is written entirely in the handwriting of "Old Hickory" and contains a double autograph, the signature being a postscript.

Dr. Taylor also found a lost deed to a tract of land in Illinois worth about $300, and a letter written by his mother when she was 16 to her mother. Dr. Taylor's mother died when he was an infant. He values the Jackson letter above the deed to the land, and the letter written by his mother above that written by Andrew Jackson.

The trunk which contained the three documents had remained undisturbed in an attic in the former home of Dr. Taylor at Russellville, Ky., for many years.

Captain Barner, Dr. Taylor's grandfather, was a great admirer of the first Democratic President, and a steamboat which he owned was named for Jackson. The letter was dated at Hermitage, Tenn., where Jackson lived after his election and previous to going to the White House.

In the letter President Jackson states that he is sending by his groom, Dumwoody, a colt for Samuel McCutchnin, "that you have promised to take charge of and deliver to him." He adds that he intended to send with the colt a "waggon" load of forage, but that owing to the "inclemency of the day" he could not. He says that McCutchnin will pay the expense of feeding the horse during transit.

The letter closes with the words, "Wishing you a pleasant and prosperous voyage through life, I am, very respectfully, your most obedient servant."

Captain Barner, to whom the letter was addressed, died in 1860.—Ohio State Journal.

What Is a Day?

Nine persons out of ten—yes, 999 out of every 1,000—if asked how long it takes the earth to turn once on its axis would answer twenty-four hours, and to the question, How many times does it turn on its axis in the course of the year? the answer would be 365 1/4 times. Both answers are wrong.

It requires but twenty-three hours and fifty-six minutes for the earth to make one complete turn, and it makes 366 1/4 turns during the year. The error springs from a wrong idea of what is meant by a day.

The day is not, as is commonly supposed, the time required by the earth to make one turn on its axis, but the interval between two successive passages of the sun across the meridian—that is to say, the time which elapses after the sun is seen exactly south in its diurnal course through the heavens before it is again seen in that position.

Now, in consequence of the earth's revolution in its orbit or path round the sun, the sun has the appearance of moving very slowly in the heavens in a direction from east to west. At noon to-morrow the sun will be a short distance to the east of the point in the heavens at which it is seen at noon to-day, so that when the earth has made one complete turn it will still have to turn four minutes longer before the sun can again be seen exactly south.

Proof is inexhaustible that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carries women safely through the Change of Life.

Read the letter Mrs. E. Hanson, 304 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was passing through the Change of Life, and suffered from nervousness, headaches, and other annoying symptoms. My doctor told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for me, and since taking it I feel so much better, and I can again do my own work. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me during this trying period."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

The Wrong Shade.

Before trying to match the sample of silk, says a writer in the Philadelphia Ledger, the clerk asked, "Is this a piece of something you want or don't want?" "Something I want, of course," replied the customer. "You don't suppose, do you, that I would go to all this trouble for a thing I can't use?"

"Some folks do," said the clerk. "I have met a number of them. The first woman I ever saw with that point of view had a square inch of blue silk that she wanted me to match. The scrap was so small that it was hard to make comparisons, but after hauling down half the bolts on the shelves and running to the door several times to test the color in broad daylight, I found the exact shade."

"How many yards do you want, madam?" I asked.

"Oh," said the woman, "I don't want any. Almost any other shade will do. That particular shade is very unbecoming. I just wanted to make sure that I don't get it, that's all."

The customer laughed. "What did you say?" she asked.

"Nothing," responded the clerk, with a patient smile, taking up her sample.

How to Know the Trees.

There is an auctioneer whose "gift of the gab" and native wit draw many purchasers to his sales. But sometimes, says a writer in the Springfield Republican, he is the subject rather than the cause of amusement.

The man's name is O. A. Kelley. Not long ago he had to sell, among other things, a lot of pine logs, and the day before the sale he went over them and marked the end of each log with his initials.

On the day of the auction an Irishman came along and immediately noticed the logs with the letters on them.

"O. A. K.," he read, loud enough for all round to hear. "Begorra, if 'tis not just like Kelley to deceive us into believing thim pine logs are oak!"

ASTONISHED THE DOCTOR

Old Lady Got Well with Change of Food.

A great scientist has said we can put off "old age" if we can only nourish the body properly.

To do this the right kind of food, of course, is necessary. The body manufactures poisons in the stomach and intestines from certain kinds of food stuffs and unless sufficient of the right kind is used, the injurious elements overcome the good.

"My grandmother, 71 years old," writes a N. Y. lady, "had been an invalid for 18 years from what was called consumption of the stomach and bowels. The doctor had given her up to die."

"I saw so much about Grape-Nuts that I persuaded Grandmother to try it. She could not keep anything on her stomach for more than a few minutes."

"She began Grape-Nuts with only a teaspoonful. As that did not distress her and as she could retain it, she took a little more until she could take all of 4 teaspoonfuls at a meal."

"Then she began to gain and grow strong and her trouble in the stomach was gone entirely. She got to enjoy good health for one so old and we know Grape-Nuts saved her life."

"The doctor was astonished that instead of dying she got well, and without a drop of medicine after she began the Grape-Nuts." "There's a Reason."

HAY BROUGHT BY TROLLEY.

Farmers Near Philadelphia Ship Their Produce in This Manner.

For the second time within a week fifteen tons of hay have been transported into Philadelphia over the line of the Philadelphia & West Chester Traction company, illustrating clearly the advantage of freight transportation by trolley and demonstrating the possibilities of the Homsher trolley freight law, says the Philadelphia North American.

A little more than a week ago a farmer of Williamstown sent to this city 31,000 pounds of baled hay, which were deferred to waiting wagons at the 63d street terminus of the West Chester line. Tuesday morning there came to the station at 69th and Market streets, 30,000 pounds of hay, which were shipped to Philadelphia by William Green, a farmer of Edgemont township.

The distances which the hay traveled was more than thirteen miles. It reached the city hours before it would have got in had it been loaded on steam cars, and served to emphasize the assertions of traction interests familiar with the workings of the trolley freight scheme, that if the trolleys were used more generally for the carriage of farm products from the neighboring productive counties consumers here could get supplies much quicker and in better condition and possibly much cheaper than they get them now.

The West Chester Company, as well as other interurban traction systems, is prepared to go into the trolley freight business under the provisions of the Homsher trolley freight law, on a general scale if the Rapid Transit company sees fit to permit its cars to come into this city over the latter's tracks. Distribution of freight of all sorts could, under this arrangement, be made almost at the door of the consumers.

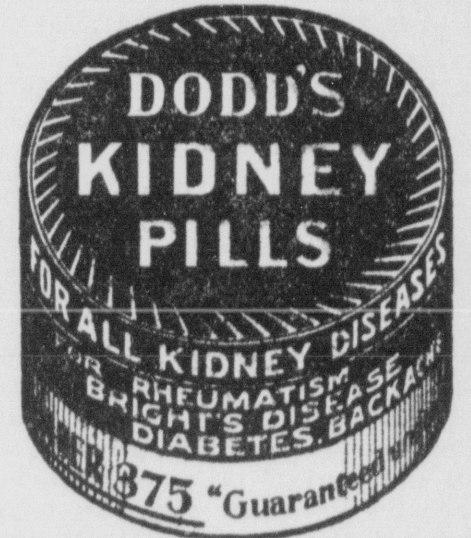

The Rapid Transit company is considering the adoption of such a scheme and is expected to announce its decision at the annual meeting of its shareholders next month.

Night Doctor Only.

An uptown doctor has a new idea. He practices at night only. He found that so many night cases coming on the top of his office hours and visits wore him out, so he determined to save his energy for the night work, which paid best anyway. He says he finds patients prefer having a doctor who is fresh and wide awake instead of one who is tired out after a day's work.—New York Sun.

Financier Wm. J. F. Reynolds Unable to Walk

MUNYON'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY MADE HIM WELL

Mr. Wm. J. F. Reynolds, ex-banker and financier, writes: "Phila., Oct. 29, 1907.—"I was perfectly helpless with rheumatism. I could not walk. I could not stand. My feet, ankles and knees were terribly swollen and I had not known a night's rest for more than a year. I used every available remedy known, with little or no relief. A friend advised Munyon's Rheumatic Remedy and reluctantly I tried it. The first bottle relieved and I purchased another. Before the second bottle had been half used, I was absolutely and perfectly cured. I never felt better in my life than I feel now.

"I shall always be but too happy to give a fuller account of what Munyon's wonderful Rheumatic Remedy did for me, and cheerfully invite any sufferer to visit or correspond with me upon the subject."

"WM. J. F. REYNOLDS,

THREE SETS OF WARRANTS.

Tennessee Authorities Going Full Tilt After Night Riders.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Upon the affidavits of James S. Deason, relative of Captain Quentin Rankin, Hillsman Taylor, son of Colonel R. Z. Taylor, and J. C. Burdick owner of the fish docks at Samburg, which were once destroyed by night riders, three hundred state warrants for the arrest of one hundred alleged night riders, have been issued by Justice R. Polk. There are three sets of warrants against each of the one hundred men and of this number, at least two-thirds are already under arrest or parole by the military authorities at Camp Nemo. One set of warrants charge murder in the first degree, being based upon the killing of Captain Rankin. The second set charge assault with intent to commit murder while masked, also a capital offense under the laws of Tennessee. They are based upon the attempt made to end Colonel Taylor's life. The third set of warrants, those sworn to by Mr. Burdick, charge the parties named with going masked upon the premises of another in the night time. The maximum punishment for this offense is twenty-one years in the penitentiary and the minimum punishment is two years. It was one of the contentions of the attorneys who filed petition of habeas corpus in behalf of Ed. Marshall and Will Watson, now in custody, that the men were held without legal writ of warrants.

CONFESSED SHOCKING CRIME.

Guilty Love Led to Foul Murder of Michigan Man.

Detroit, Nov. 4.—After confessing their guilt to the police, John Kurka, a teamster, and Mrs. Anthony Schultz were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Gerhard in Hamtramck township and pleaded guilty to the charge of murdering Mrs. Schultz's husband, who was a half brother of Kurka. The latter said that the crime was attributed to an illicit affection between himself and his half brother's wife. Kurka had been living in the home of the Schultz couple.

"Annie, I've told them all about it," said Kurka when the woman was brought before the police after Kurka's confession, and the woman dropped sobbing and hysterical into a chair. The police officials sat silent for ten minutes until she controlled herself and then listened to her story.

According to the two confessions the police say that Schultz was murdered in his bed about 3:30 a. m., a week ago yesterday, the wife in another room being able to hear the fatal blows of the axe each time it fell. The pleas of guilty in the justice's court act as a waiver of a justice court examination and throw the cases into the circuit court of Wayne county.

TRACTION MEN ORGANIZE

As a Result They Get Material Reduction in Hours.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 4.—The first benefit received by the employees of the Illinois traction system, who recently organized on the advice of Congressman William McKinley, president of the company, came when a new schedule on all of the interurban and various city lines owned by the company was commenced. According to the new schedule each employe will have to work only eight hours instead of ten and one-half hours, as was formerly the case. Wages of the men are also increased and the seniority plan of increase in wages is adopted. The longer a man stays with the company the better salary he gets. The men organized about two months ago.

Deadly Feud Row in Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 4.—As a result of a feudal war at Campton Junction, about twenty miles west of Jackson, Islow Allen, aged twenty years, was shot and killed; Alvin Garver, aged twenty-two, was badly injured, and Clarence Sherman, who did the shooting, was shot in the head but managed to escape to the mountains. Eight barrels of whisky shipped into town for the election brought on the trouble, although family troubles of long standing played a prominent part.

His Confidence Was Betrayed.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Nov. 4.—John McMullen was arrested on the charge of wrecking the Duluth Limited of the Omaha railroad near Augusta last Thursday. He is said to have confessed his crime to his sweetheart, who informed the authorities. The train when it was wrecked was going fifty miles an hour and was thrown off the track because a rail had been removed. Eight persons were slightly injured.

The October Deficit.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures for October shows an increase in receipts of $1,000,000 and an increase in expenditures of $7,000,000 as compared with September. The total receipts for the month were $49,317,724 and the expenditures $56,038,762, leaving a deficit for the month of $10,721,038. The increase in the public debt during October less cash in the treasury was $8,511,975.

Author and Lecturer Dead.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 4.—Emma Moffet Tyng, aged sixty-two author and lecturer, is dead. Mrs. Tyng was an extensive traveler in both the new and old worlds and lectured on the Holy Grail. She spent nearly all of the past few years of her life in New York.

THE TAFT SMILE GREW AND GREW

Victorious Nominee Was Early
Sure of Result.

JOY IN CINCINNATI HOME

At the Home of His Brother, Charles P., in the Queen City, the Successful Nominee, Surrounded by a Merry Party of Friends and Relatives, Received the Word That the People of the Greatest Nation on Earth Had Called Him to Chief Place in That Nation.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—There was no break in the optimistic character of the returns received at the C. P. Taft residence in this city where William H. Taft, the Republican candidate, and Mrs. Taft were surrounded last night by a merry party of relatives and close friends. Elaborate preparations had been made by C. P. Taft for the best telegraphic service possible. The rear veranda of the quaint but aristocratic old mansion on Pike street had been enclosed and an up-to-date telegraph room established. One wire was directly connected with national Republican headquarters in New York and three others brought in news as gathered by the Associated Press and other sources. From 6 o'clock on bulletins were received in increasing numbers and the enthusiasm of the party increased in proportion.

In the big drawing room were gathered Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Taft and their daughter, Miss Louise; Mrs. William H. Taft and her three sisters, Miss Maria Herron, Mrs. Prof. Moore and Mrs. William Anderson and Prof. Moore. Also Miss Della Tarrey, aunt of the candidate; Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Wallingford, sister of Representative Longworth; Dr. J. J. Richardson of Washington; Fred W. Carpenter, Judge Taft's secretary; A. I. Vorys and J. T. Williams, representing Chairman Hitchcock, and a party of newspaper men. Gus J. Karger read the bulletins and the applause became more hilarious as the rosate hue of the returns deepened. Meanwhile Judge Taft circulated out in the operating room and among the guests, exhibiting the finest specimen of that smile which the campaign has made famous.

IT WAS SOON OVER

Mr. Bryan Went to Bed at Ten O'Clock.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—William J. Bryan received at his home, Fairview, the returns which early told him that for the third time he had been defeated in the greatest ambition of his life. Confident of victory to the very last, he was not prepared to believe that his cause was lost until the pluralities of his Republican opponent piled up in such proportions as to leave no room for doubt. When the early returns came in he made particular inquiries regarding the state of New York and found much encouragement in the gains he was making up state over the Democratic vote of 1904, but as the figures continued to be received he relied on Greater New York to offset the heavy Taft vote above the Harlem river. Even in that he was bitterly disappointed, and he soon realized that the state was hopelessly gone and with it his prospects of being elected. After nearly three hours spent in his library, Mr. Bryan came upstairs and talked to the newspaper men and others who had assembled in the "work room." He read some further returns, but they told the same story of defeat, and he announced that he would not have any statement to give out at that time.

A large number of the voters of his precinct came in to congratulate him on its being carried for him, and after chatting with them for a while he went into the house, first stating that he would retire at 10 o'clock.

Hawaii to Have New Garrison.

Washington, Nov. 4.—A board of seven officers of the army has been appointed to meet in the Hawaiian Islands for the location of buildings of a permanent garrison for one regiment of infantry, two squadrons of cavalry, one regiment of field artillery, one company of engineers, one company of the signal corps and a general hospital and barracks for a detachment of the hospital corps.

May Boycott Tsing Tau Harbor.

Tsing Tau, Nov. 4.—On account of new harbor regulations which went into effect November 1, the local agents of Chinese and British steamers entering this port are trying to bring about a boycott of the harbor. Vessels bringing cargoes for this city and surrounding towns are now discharging their cargoes to lighters outside the harbor, thereby avoiding the port regulations.

The President Did Not Tarry.

Washington, Nov. 4.—President Roosevelt arrived here from Oyster Bay at 6:15 o'clock last evening, aboard his special train. He was driven immediately to the White House.

Stars Will Fall.

In the early morning hours of November 14 to 16 those bright, swiftly moving, shooting stars may be observed which dart outward in all directions from the constellation of Leo. It will be remembered that this shower is caused by the earth's plowing through a great stream of meteoric particles which revolve about the sun in the apth of the comet captured by Uranus 2,000 years ago. While it is not expected that the brilliant display of 1833 and 1866, when the earth encountered the densest part of the swarm, will be repeated, the shower is, nevertheless, still the brightest of the shooting star showers. Unfortunately the moon this year will be in its last quarter just below Leo, on the above dates, so that the fainter shooting stars will probably escape detection.

American Elections.

Popular elections in the United States are interesting studies. They bring tremendous excitement in which neighbors are arrayed against neighbors almost to the fighting point for a few weeks. Then election day comes with the strain right at the breaking tension. But the day after everything settles back into its normal place and within a week things are as if there never had been an election. The victors have had their fling at rejoicing; the vanquished have pocketed their disappointment. There is a little crowing, a little kicking and the verdict of the ballot is accepted with tranquility.

Popular elections in America are just what they are intended to be, just what they should be—the free expression of the popular will, and the majority receives the result with equanimity.

Tore Off The Eagles.

Henry Brown, a teamster at Rushville, was arrested Tuesday and placed in jail for alleged shady transactions in connection with the casting of his vote. In fact, he did not get to vote.

Brown went into the booth at the voting place with the three ballots given him but when he came out he only had two to give to the keeper of the ballot box. When asked what he did with the third ballot, he replied he had left it in the booth. An investigation proved that he had told a falsehood. An officer was sent on his trail and he was apprehended and placed in jail. When searched at the jail it was found he had torn the two eagles off the national and county ballots and these he had concealed under his shirt.

November Weather.

The following data, covering a period of thirty-seven years, have been compiled from the records of the weather bureau to show the conditions that have prevailed in the month of November during these years. It is stated that they should not be construed as a forecast of weather conditions for this month. The mean or normal temperature for the thirty-seven Novembers was 42 degrees. The warmest November was in 1902 with an average temperature of 50, and the coldest was in 1880 with an average of 31. The highest temperature was 76, November 1, 1888, and the lowest was 5 below zero, November 22, 1880.

Returns to Japan.

Miss Carrie Heaton, of Moores Hill, who resided here for many years, was here Tuesday calling on numerous friends. She left the same evening for Sendai, Japan, to continue her missionary work.

A Lafayette Woman Hung Marvelous Result of a Woman's Plea.

An old lady called on the Root Juice scientist over at Lafayette, Ind., and said: "I actually hung to the neck of my husband and pleaded with him to trp Root Juice. So much was being said about the remarkable cures the remedy has made that I feel it might do him some good. He has suffered for years with his stomach and kidneys and severe headaches. Every change of the weather his back pained him very much and of late years the lightest food would ferment in his stomach and bowels and the fermentation of gas would cause him to bloat so that he could not button his vest. He tried so many medicines that he lost heart, but I finally persuaded him to take Root Juice. He has used but a little over two bottles and I never saw such a change in a man in my life. He told me this morning that he would not take the best farm in the state for what the wonderful medicine had done for him. A number of local people have reported remarkable cures resulting from a short use of the great health promoting discovery. It gives a good appetite, creates good digestion and seems to heal and tone every organ in the body. Root Juice is $1 a bottle, or three bottles for $2.50 at W. F. Peter's drug store.

W. W. Thompson of Houston was in this city Tuesday evening and remained here until this morning.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the people of our city have been led to purchase so-called remedies from which they have received no benefit whatever, and having thus wasted so much hard-earned money, it has come to pass that they know not what to believe.

Inasmuch as this unsatisfactory state of affairs exists, KNOW, THEREFORE, ALL PERSONS who are in need of such a medicine that we will supply them with VINOL on a POSITIVE GUARANTEE that if it does not succeed in benefiting them we will refund the entire amount of money paid us for it.

There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but there are some we know to be honest, reliable, and of great curative value. Such is VINOL; it is not a secret medicine,—just peptonate of iron, wine, and all the curative extractives of cod liver oil, combined. We are familiar with every particle of it, and KNOW that it should benefit every one who uses it.

Could any offer be more fair than this? You are ill; we offer you medicine which we believe will help you, and if it does not we will return your money. Is there anyone foolish enough not to accept this offer? You owe it to your family, to your friends, and yourself to try this medicine which we give you our pledge is a genuine cod liver and iron preparation of great merit.

We unhesitatingly recommend Vinol as a Body Builder and Strength Creator for Feeble Old People, Delicate Children, Frail Women, All Run Down Persons, and Those Needing a Good Tonic after the Grippe or any Severe Illness, and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.

Do you think we could afford to lend our name to its praises, as we have been doing in the newspapers, if we did not know VINOL to be an honest and unusually valuable remedy for the ills for which it is prescribed? We certainly could not; we therefore ask you, our neighbors, friends and acquaintances to accept our assurances that this is a genuine offer, and that any and all persons who need a medicine of this character should feel a sense of security in accepting it.

You will absolutely be under no obligation to us whatever, if after you have tried one bottle of VINOL, and have not received any benefit, you have only to tell us so, and we will return the entire amount of money you paid us for it.

VINOL is an old and valuable remedy improved by modern science—tastes good and agrees with every one.

Call and get a bottle to-day. You won't be sorry.
